PRESS RELEASE February 26, 2026

Registration opens for Botanical Gardens Kids Summer Nature Camps

CORPUS CHRISTI—You can now register kids ages 6-16 for five sessions of half-day KIDS SUMMER NATURE CAMPS at the South Texas Botanical Gardens & Nature Center, 8545 S. Staples St.

Camp sessions, for ages 6-8 and 9-13, include exciting animal interactions and engaging nature activities in a safe setting. Learning experiences for campers include reptile and parrot interactions, trail walks, tracking, nature crafts, journaling, daily investigations with lab tools and nature models! Campers also may use of binoculars, compasses, mini-microscopes and cameras. Activities are age-appropriate taught by educators, volunteers and guest presenters.

The fifth camp, ages 10-16, is designed for youth who want to volunteer at the Gardens on a regular basis in an area such as Animal Care!

Led by Education and Animal Care staff and trained volunteers, the varied-theme summer camps are limited to 20 campers per session. Camp shirt, snacks and drinks are provided.

Alternating between indoor and outdoor activities, campers should BRING a water bottle, hat and extra snack; and WEAR sunscreen, comfortable cool clothing and close-toed shoes. Camp fee for all sessions is $150 members, $175 others. Registration must be paid at least a week before session starts. For registration and information, contact BrendaE@stxbot.org, 361-852-2100 x 223.
